Prof. Abbe, read a paper before the Bethel Literary last Tuesday evening.

The Editor W. Calvin Chase and foreman R. J. Rush, of the Bee, will leave for Philadelphia, Pa., to-day.

Mr. Jeremiah Adams, has just returned to this city from the 6th District, M. D., where he was successful in his candidature.

WANTED—A young man or a good size boy at this office. He must know how to attend to a horse. Call at once.

Miss Bertha Crasswhite, nee Hogan has left Maine and is now in Boston, Mass., on a visit where she will remain a while.

Mr. Merritt Hope, a popular young man of Hampton, Va., and well known in this city, died at Hampton Nov. 4th.

All the keys of Windsor Castle were recently stolen, but even this does not interfere with the rapid sale of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Myriads of cases of rheumatism and neuralgia have already succumbed to that wonderful remedy Salvation Oil. Price only 25 cents a bottle.

FOR RENT—
Furnished or unfurnished rooms, modern conveniences, at 1822, 11th st., n. w. With or without board. Terms reasonable.

WANTED—By a white lady a little colored girl between 10 and 12 years old, to adopt. One with no parents preferred. Address Mrs. S. E. Y. Bee office.

Most men, otherwise strong in body and mind, will become unhappy and break down when afflicted with Rheumatism. If they would try Salvation Oil they would find relief at once. Price 25 c.

Mr. Morgan Houser was quietly married last Thursday evening to Miss Henrietta Simmons. It is reported that Mr. Houser was going with a lady in Richmond, Va., by the name of Miss M—. It is not known whether the parents objected or not, but the marriage was very quiet.

"A month ago I was happy!" is the declaration of Bryan W. Proctor the poet. So were lots of other folks, who are now telling people in decided nasal tones: "Got a toad in my head." But there is still happiness to be secured; a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will cure any cough or cold.

The annual sermon of the G. U. O. of the Sons and Daughters of Liberty was preached on last Sunday afternoon to about 1200 members at the 5th Baptist church Vt.

Ave. bet. Q and R sts., n. w., by the Rev. G. W. Lee, who preached a very instructive sermon to the order, from the 1st chap. of Ruth 14th and 16th verses, "I will go and where thou lodgest, I will lodge." After the sermon the S. W. Grand Chief S. H. Lomax delivered a short address, then a handsome collection was taken up. A vote of thanks and a snug little purse was presented to the pastor for his able sermon.

The Excelsior Social Club gave their first grand entertainment of the season at Mrs. Irvings on Virginia Ave., s. w. It was indeed a grand affair. At 8 o'clock the guests began to assemble, and by 10 o'clock the lovely parlors were filled with the gayest of the gay hearted. The rooms were beautifully decorated with festoons of roses and evergreens and the table fairly groaned under the weight of its choice viands. But to realize fully the grandeur of the entertainments given by the Excelsior Social Club, it is necessary for one to be present. The guests were select; we can mention only a few owing to lack of space.

Misses M. V. Osborne, M. Fields, G. A. Williams, M. Short, A. V. Ryder, E. Taylor, P. Freeman, M. Cross, C. Madison S. Gray, A. Hickman, M. Gray. Messers. W. Bush, E. Webster, S. Lucy, S. Minor, E. Garrett, J. Clark, W. Gibson, J. Buckman, W. Brown, P. Brooks, S. Middleton W. Wilkinson, T. Short.

IT IS RUMORED,

GONE TO THE FAIR.

A. T. Jackson, Esq., left the city Tuesday for Halifax, N. C. He will visit the State Fair at Raleigh, N. C., as the special representative of the Bee. He will return Nov. 27.

CHARLESTON EARTHQUAKE.

Visit the grand exhibition of the Charleston earthquake at Lincoln Memorial church, cor. 11th and R sts., next Thursday evening, Nov. 11 at 8 o'clock. Admission 15 cents, children 10 cents. Dr. E. P. Howland will illustrate his lecture by a large number of photographs taken during his visit soon after the earthquake. Everybody come!

THE CHILD OF BETHLEHAM.

On the night of the 1st inst. an infant came to see the light, the father looked in the east for the Star of Bethlehem, but beheld the babe partook of the nature and sex of her mother Mary, nevertheless there was great rejoicing in the household of James. The weight was ten pounds. The father is from Georgia and the mother one of Washington's daughters and their names are Mr. and Mrs. Devaux.

NOT EASILY LIFTED.

Oh, Farmer Jones is a man of strength;
At lifting great weights he all other folks knocks;
Throughout this great world's breadth and length

He's known as "the man with the strength of an ox."
Iron to him is like the snow's drift;
If you wrestle with him you will come to harm;
But one thing he hasn't the strength to lift,
And that is the mortgage upon his farm.

A FINE PORTRAIT OF RECORDER J. C. MATTHEWS.

MR. J. C. STRATHER'S EXHIBIT TO THE N. C. FAIR.

Mr. Jacob C. Strather, one of Washington's colored artists has just finished a fine crayon portrait of Recorder J. C. Matthews, which he will send to the North Carolina Industrial Fair. The picture is an exact likeness of Mr. Matthews and the workman-ship is artistic in every particular. Those who desire to see the picture, before it is sent away can do so by calling at the Bee office. Mr. Strather the artist is well known in this city as a young man of artistic skill, and this portrait of the new recorder is beyond all doubt the finest of his workman-ship.

THE ISREAL BETHEL LITERARY.

MISS JORDON ON OBSERVATIONS. THE COLOR LINE DRAWN.

There was a pleasant audience at the Isreal Bethel Literary association last Monday evening. Miss Maria Jordan, read a paper entitled observations. The paper took in everything of importance and the most significant feature about it, was the prominent appearance of the color question to which Mr. H. Price Williams took exceptions. He did not think that the lady should draw the color line so much, that this idea of continually talking about the color question was ridiculous and that the lady's paper was a reflection on the colored people. Mr. A. G. Lenard took the floor and defended the paper. He thought that Mr. Williams' talk was like an angle from heaven but very shallow.

Rev. R. S. Williams, agreed with Mr. Price Williams and thought the color question should be abolished, other speakers sustained the paper.

Next Monday evening Mr. J. F. Boston will read a paper entitled "The unsettled Question."

THE WASHINGTON CADETS.

MAJOR BOSTON REQUESTED TO RESIGN. A LIVELY MEETING MONDAY NIGHT.

The Washington Cadet corps held its regular monthly meeting last Monday evening at the Armory. Long before the hour for the meeting it was prevalent that a storm was raging. Major Boston took the chair and called the meeting to order, at which time cries were heard throughout the hall, demanding Major Boston's resignation. The Major, it is said, stated that he was not ready to resign, a member moved to declare the office of Major vacant, but the Major who was presiding, refused to put the motion, whereupon cries were heard for him to vacate the chair and for Capt. Brooks to assume it. Capt. Brooks, took the chair and put the motion declaring the office of Major vacant which was adopted. It is not known who will succeed Major Boston, but it is rumored that Capt. Brooks, will probably be his successor, Major Fleetwood has been asked to accept but he declined.

WEST WASHINGTON.

James L. Turner, Agent and Reporter.
1417 West 23 Street.

Mrs. Maria Jenkins widow of the late Amos Jenkins whose serious illness was mentioned in the column of the Bee died on Thursday morning at 2:40 o'clock.

The funeral of Miss C. Canter daughter of Mrs. C. Canter took place last Monday afternoon, the Mt. Zion M. E. school of which she was a member turned out in a body, Rev. D. Collins officiated.

The third quarterly anniversary of S. S. Union of W. Washington will take place the third Sunday afternoon of this month.

Mrs. B. Alexander of Md. is here and will spend the winter with her sister Mrs. S. Holmes.

The entertainment given by the Free Will association of Mt. Zion church on Tuesday evening last at Union Bethel Hall was a grand success.

Mr. B. Fisher was presented with a handsome Odd Fellow P. N. F. collar for having sold the highest number of tickets.

SOUTH WASHINGTON.

R. S. Laws, 316 H st., S. W.

Mrs. Henretta Coleman at 213 H st., entertains some fears that her son Willie is killed in the rail-road banks of Pennsylvania.

A police was asked why it was that the police force in this section was required to carry billies, and all others came? He answered, I do not know, other than it is the order from Major Walker, whose right it is to designate.

But, said the Bee man, is it not possible that this order was given from full impressions made from time to time by police officers who reported from prejudice against a large community on account of this race complexion, a majority being colored? That may be all true so far as I know; I am a stranger in this community and know but little about the people other than their general character as citizens.

The only difference between the manners of citizens in this community and that of the North End, is the majority there is white and here colored, and the police officers think that they can exercise a greater sway of cruelty which they cannot do.

The colored people claim more respect than they as white men are willing to consider.

The old fashion supper is enough for us in the new fashion age, was the subject of the distinguished, Rt. Rev. Bishop J. J. Moore, D. D. delivered at the Wesley Zion A. M. E. church on Monday evening before the annual reception of the Building committee of said church. Plates were turned for 75 including, a fruit tree handsomely decorated.

The order of exercises commenced with addresses, in the audience room by the Rev. Dr. Laws, of the Va., Ave. Baptist church, and Bishop Moore, who were introduced by the Rev. Dr. Dyson, pastor in charge, as master of ceremonies.

Bishop Moore said when introduced, I must be excused for wit and humor as introduced, and consider that part of the exercises as sufficiently handled by Dr. Laws who is so much at home in that line; but let me come now to some real facts, which are so much more essential to you in the present age, than they were to me 70 years ago.

There are three things needed in our manhood to make us equal citizens.

1st. Grace and Morality, will put us on the Lord's side; education, will put us on the white people's side, and money and land, will put us on our own side.

These exercises were interspersed with appropriate music under the leadership of Prof. Scott as director, with Miss Lizzie Hammons, Miss Mamie Fields, and Miss Ida Contee, altos. A solo which was simply sublime, was sung by Miss L. Hamer, the organist.

Supper was served at 11 o'clock with Mr. James Lee, as chairman. Mr. Deities Hammons, James E. Thompson, R. H. Gunell, and others with the following ladies; Madames Frances A. Dyson, Jane P. Hammer, E. Baltimore, A. V. Gunnell, C. Butler, M. V. Lee, M. M. Lee, M. Harris, S. Johnson, and Misses E. Brown, S. Fields, A. F. Bowen, and Maggie M. Lee.

Among the many charms of the evening, were Misses Laura Magruder and Alice Smith.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

Rev. W. J. Robinson, preached a fine sermon last Sabbath.

Rev. G. L. Davis, preached at the Israel C. M. E. church last Sabbath to a large congregation at 11 o'clock and in the evening Rev. R. J. Williams preached his first sermon in his new year's work.

Rev. Wm. Grimshaw will preach at Ebenezer to-morrow.

Rev. L. C. Moore, of Miss., preached to a full house at the First Baptist church last Sunday evening. His sermon was full of pathos and sound advice. The collection for the sick and afflicted was large, which was obtained through the efforts of Rev. Moore.

Gen'l. A. B. Upshaw is acting Com. at the absence of Com. Atkins. The General is one of those polite and pleasant assistant Commissioners who pleases all that seek for legal information.

Chief messenger W. J. Smith has been presented with a fine boy.

Mr. J. W. Walker of the Indian office has gone home to vote.

Funeral of Mrs. Julia Parker was Monday at 2 p. m. at Asbury church.

Dr. Sunderland's able defense of himself and church, was equal to that of Rt. Rev. Bishop S. T. Jones, of the A. M. E. church, in our last issue.

The Third Baptist church of this city of which the Rev. James H. Lee, is pastor, is preparing to build a handsome church edifice on the corner of 8th and P sts. n. w.

There are three Sunday Unions in this city, the old District, comprising the Methodist, Presbyterian and the Nineteenth Baptist schools, the Baptist Union, comprising 45 schools of Washington and vicinity, and the West Washington Union, comprising the Methodist and the First Baptist schools of that place.

Rt. Rev. Bishop, J. J. Moore, D. D. preached three times at the Wesley Zion A. M. E. church on Sunday last.

A large building fund collection was taken up at the Zion Baptist church.

On to-morrow night, R. S. Laws, pastor of the Virginia Avenue Baptist church, will preach at 7 o'clock from 2nd Kings 4th, 40. "Oh Thou man of God, there is death in the Pot."

The National Thanksgiving Day, having been announced by the President of the United States, to take place on Thursday, November the 25th, the usual National Sermon, will be preached at the Virginia Avenue Baptist church at 11 a. m.

Rev. Geo. W. Lee, pastor of the Fifth Baptist church, preached a sermon at the Z on Baptist church, on Sunday evening last.

It seems that a very large majority of the prominent ministers of the city, and the more intelligent members of that church, favor Wm. J. Howard.

Rt. Rev. Bi D., presides over the states of New York, Pennsylvania, Mississippi, Georgia and Tennessee. He is 70 years of age, and has been connected with the A. M. E. church, for 50 years.

This is a general talk that the ministers of all denominations in this city will meet again soon, and recognize the old Ecclesiastical congress.
